Predict Where You Will Be

I, Kara Conway, see myself as a teacher, married and pregnant sitting on my front porch with my Lexus in the driveway.

I, Fabiola Cordano, see myself married with children, owning a big farm in the woods and paying Denise Santiago to clean my toilet.

I, Vinny Crossman, see myself still single and traveling around the country with the F.B.I.

I, Mark D'Ambrosio, see myself as a successful businessman with three girlfriends fifteen years younger than me.

I, Nate D'Avolio, see myself still beating little kids up for looking at my girlfriend.

I, Greg Dankner, see myself still hanging down the fifty steps with Bitop, Brian, Jay and the rest of the gang.

I, David Davis, see myself teaming up with Mr. Philips to go on a secret mission for the C.I.A.

I, Marissa DeAngelis, see myself barefoot and pregnant making dinner for Chris who just wouldn't leave after the divorce.

I, Johnna DeChristoforo, see myself happy, in the career of my choice and having a family with the man I love now.

I, Danielle DeRosa, see myself as an occupational therapist, married and pregnant with twins.

I, Joseph DeRosa, see myself working hard and still living at home with Mom and the family.

I, Beth Donovan, see myself as a happily married architect with three kids and a Dalmation.

I, Susan Donovan, see myself still working at Libs with the rest of the crew.

In The Year 2017

I, Brian Hudd, see myself as a happy successful corn gatherer in the cornfields of Nebraska.

I, Fred Hurley, see myself rich, married, happy, and driving a corvette.

I, Marie Inacio, see myself trying to make it in the real world, while Jack simply wastes all my money.

I, Andrea Johnson, see myself back at Winthrop High, being a substitute teacher, while my husband is off making millions for me to spend.

I, Elizabeth Lally, see myself still not dating, undecided and confused on who to go out with.

I, Nichole Leary, see myself not being married, not having any kids, and owning a bar.

I, Andrea Loud, see myself living in Antarctica with my rich husband and 10 kids.

I, Kerrie A. Mahoney, see myself owning a veterinarian clinic in the country, and having a prosperous life being married.

I, Courtney Martin, see myself married with kids and still making time for girls' night out.

I, Michael McCarey, see myself as a captain in the Coastguard, supporting my wife, two rug rats, and a mental problem I acquired during high school.

I, Beth McLaughlin, see myself anywhere but Winthrop with a good job, a husband, a couple of kids, and a high school diploma.

I, Kristina Milano, see myself married with children, working as an office manager at a big firm.

I, Ejiroghene Osilama, see myself as this old lady who lives in a shoe and has so many children I wouldn't know what to do.

I, Chris Ferrara, see myself sitting on a stool at Brown's Drug store telling high school football war stories.

I, Eddie Fidler, see myself with a family and making a living as either an F.B.I. agent or a U.S. Marshall.

I, Melissa Flintoff, see myself as a happily married doctor with two daughters.

I, Allison Fontaine, see myself as the owner of a successful law firm in New York City, trying to balance a career and a family.

I, Sean Gallagher see myself still playing soccer and still going to Carvers on weekend nights.

I, Michelle Montone, see myself with half a mil' in the bank, a Mercedes in the garage, two kids, and husband.

I, Janelle Muldoon, see myself at Jen Williams and John Verrochi's wedding (for the ninth time).

I, Paul O'Brien, see myself working for Bullseye marketing as an executive consultant doing nothing and getting paid for it.

I, Katie O'Maley, see myself living in a pretty place with lots of flowers and sunshine.

I, Lori Paci, see myself no longer outside of the Tank but in it cheering on Jen and Jenn, the official Latino Night dancers.

I, Lauren Palizzolo, see myself sitting on the wall at Revere Beach with BJ, A. Red, Wiyams, and Lori waiting for the Everett Boys

I, Mike Palmer, see myself in twenty years meeting the rest of my friends down the center for a slice.

I, Lauren Panarese, see myself in my chateau in Monte Carlo living happily with my loving and devoted husband Dave Matthews.

I, Matthew Passaro, see myself still trying to pass Spanish 2 just to graduate from high school.

I, Katie Pohl-Scot, see myself married to Steve Siraco, and still asking my friends for help with my relationship.

I, Lisa Polcaro, see that the grass will be greener.

I, Steve Pratt, see myself playing in Game 7 of the 2016 NBA FINALS, making my million dollars a year, just like Greg Kite thirty years ago. We both slipped through college quietly but made a boom in the NBA.

I, Eleana Prizky, see myself still using Jello.

I, Melissa Quilty, see myself and Kelly still wondering around trying to figure out what to do.

I, Allyson Raimondi, see myself roosting in the hen house and wallowing in the pig sty.

I, Danny Rizzoto, see myself searching diligently for my Lincoln.

I, Kisha Rodgers, see myself living with my family and working hard to keep it together.

I, Elizabeth Rudberg, see myself married with a pet pig, either working on an alligator farm or running hot air balloons in New Zealand.

I, Kim Russo, see myself as still having a messy room.

I, Jennifer Salamone, see myself a little taller, thinner and hopefully not sagging.

I, Kristan Sanchez, see myself still sitting at Hippie Beach with Kim, Vanessa, and whoever else we bring along that night.

I, Denise Santiago, see myself still living in Winthrop, married to Brad Pitt, and owning a pet dolphin which is washed twice a week by Fabi C.

I, Brian Silk, see myself as a police officer in Boston, with a family of a wife and son.

I, Patty Singarella, see myself still living in Winthrop, hanging out at Masa with Fabi, Denise, Joey, Jeff, Brian, Janice, and Amy.

I, Michael Spencer, see myself as a successful engineer and Dave Davis still stalking Ms. Silva.

I, Danielle Spinale, see myself married to a rich man, while chasing after my own little "Princess".

I, Jaclyn Struppa, see myself as a cheerleader for Nada Surf.

I, Christa Tassone, see myself as an elementary school teacher, owning my own dance studio, having two sons, two daughters, happily married and owning my own house.

I, Chas Tewksbury, see myself creating films and music, making a lot of noise, enjoying life and taking care of a family.

I, Jerry Turner, see myself living in Zambawee owning a llama ranch.

I, Kelley Whalen, see myself cleaning airplanes for the rest of my life.

I, Jennifer Williams, see myself on a cruise with Janelle that we got with our Frequent Friday Cards.

I, Andrea Wyson, see myself still laughing at the jokes I don't understand.

I, Sylvia Biernat, see myself married to James Bond while trying to work 25 hours a day and raising 8 kids.

I, Joey Bitopoulos, see myself hopping from college to college and still hanging at the fifty steps with the Funk Bunch.

I, Toni Boncore, see myself still waiting for Andrea and Lala on girls' night out.

I, Tammy Boudreau, see myself married to Joe Salisbury with three kids living in New Hampshire.

I, Philip Braverman, see myself traveling with a group of Mexicans selling light bulbs and dirty magazines out of the back of my spaceship.

I, Patrick Butler, see myself trying to quit chewing tobacco.

I, Angela Amara, hope to see myself discussing theater and films in an office larger than Shapiro's.

I, Vanessa Armano, see myself working four jobs and still having no time to do anything.

I, George Barker, see myself working weekends at Liberty Market trying to pay off my bills from medical school.

I, Michael Bass, see myself being the next great assistant indoor track coach.

I, Lawone Bennett, see myself and Duke still doing our thing with the ladies.

I, Aneta Biernat, see myself trying to reach the moon.

I, Shaun Butler, see myself with a lot of money but don't know how I got it.

I, Kathleen Cali, see myself helping Lori make Jon laugh at the Panarese/Matthews wedding.

I, Jennifer Cavanaugh, see myself a successful artist, married and far, far away from Winthrop.

I, Selene Cerulli, see myself as a hardworking business owner.

I, Ted Chicos, see myself driving a phat mustang convertible in California still partying with my friends.

I, Jack Cimino, see myself trying to be a business executive but when that fails I'll just sit around and live off Mia.

I, Brian Cleary, see myself doing my thing in Martha's Vineyard, whipping around in my Lexus with a phat house and a wife and maybe a little one hanging around.
